

ROWHILL SCHOOL MISSION STATEMENT

Developing the responsible citizen for tomorrow by raising self-esteem and independence through education and care.

Term 6

Dear Parents, Carers, Governors, Friends and Pupils,
Already a lot has happened in Term 6; the last GCSE exam for year 11's took place on Friday 12.6.15. Pupils were a credit to themselves in the mature manner in which they managed this stressful time. Staff too had a sense of pride as there were over 35 GCSE entries this year. Well done.

The Duke of Edinburgh Award "sleep over" at school was successful with all pupils completing the 10km "navigation walk" and cooking meals. The evening was completed around a log fire in our Forest School. All very magical.

Along with sports events, Primary classes have visited Dover Castle (as part of their humanities topic), and have been to the "Barking Fun Day" and Challenger Troop for year 6 has got off to a positive start.

A CHANGE OF DATE; The presentation and year 11's leavers' afternoon is Wednesday 24th June 2015, in which we hope Andy Ansah (football player and actor ~ amongst other things) will be our guest speaker. We hope you will be able to come. Other events and diary dates are listed below.

Please find attached a parent/carer questionnaire to capture your experience of Rowhill and to help inform us of how to continue to improve the school.

Thank you in advance for taking the time to complete and return this form.

Yours sincerely
